

We created this repertoire list to provide you with a detailed resource that will help guide you in the right direction when it comes to picking music for your special day.

We've included lists of our most requested selections for each part of a wedding ceremony, tips on what to think about if you want to pick your own pieces, and grouped all of our music into categories based on genre. To avoid confusion, each piece is listed only once. Pieces are alphabetized by composer's last name, or title if there is no composer.

Please be advised in perusing this list that, although we try to make all the pieces available for anyone at any time, some pieces may not be possible with a duo instead of a trio (or vice versa). This list represents only a small fraction of the classical music we have available in our library. If you would like more information about any piece you see listed here or want to inquire about any classical selection you may not see, don't hesitate to contact us. If you are in search of music for a holiday performance, we can help with that too!

Special requests not on this list and not in our library may also be possible for an additional fee and minimum advance notice of six weeks. We need time to make your dream soundtrack come to life! Thank you!
